

5.5 National strategy to increase youth participation

-

previous page

< 5.4 Young people's participation in policy-making

- Up

- 5.6 Supporting youth organisations >

On this page

- 1.

Existence of a national strategy to increase young people's political and civil society participation

- 2.

Scope and contents

- 3.

Responsible authority for the implementation of the strategy

- 4.

Revisions/Updates

Existence of a national strategy to increase young people's political and civil society participation

There is no national strategy on young people's political participation.

In October 2017, the government launched the Strategy for a Stronger Civil Society with the objective of increasing the number of socially marginalised adults and young people in voluntary activities in order to strengthen social cohesion. The strategy is described in section 2.3.

Scope and contents

There is no national strategy on young people's political participation.

Responsible authority for the implementation of the strategy

There is no national strategy on young people's political participation.

Revisions/Updates

There is no national strategy on young people's political participation.